"A TOUCH OF CLASS"

The 1980 Homecoming game was played against the Jimtown Jimmies on Sept. 19. The Lancers defeated Jimtown 21-0 and rolled up 263 yards on offense in the process. Senior Dan Feitz scored three touchdowns on 2, 5, and 10-yard runs.

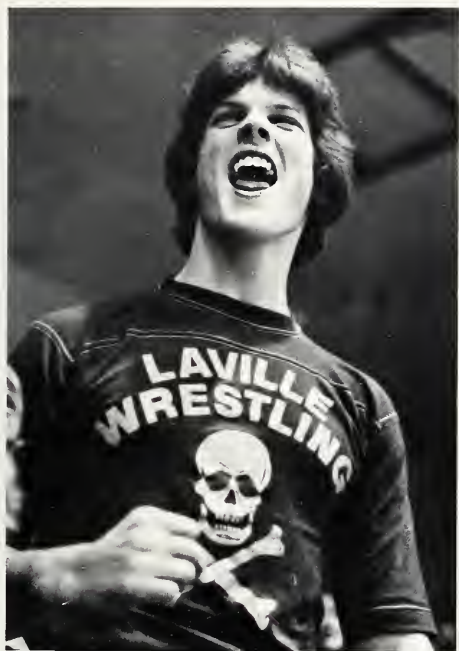

The FFA was awarded first place in the float category.

The game climaxed what had been a busy week for most students, many having helped decorate two or three floats.

As much action may occur in the stands as on the court. Dan Ingle cheers during Bi-county basketball action (top left) while, from left, Eric Singleton and Ann Kindt hold "Amy Carter," an avid LaVille fan. (top right). (Lower left), Adam Jensen solos for the blue and white against Argos. (Lower right) The crowd is all following the action except for one little boy who doesn't like what he hears.

Left, Ronda Schafer is given recognition for winning the "Voice of Democracy" award. She wrote her own speech and delivered it in competition. Right, Graduate Halana Hattery presents the Roy Hattery Memorial Scholarship $200 cash award to Rhonda Rutzen. Below, Tom Dykstra wins the $2,000 Farmer's State Bank Scholarship and shakes hands with representative Allen Cummins.

Top, Brad Pierce is congratulated by Director of Counseling Margaret Herbster for his high academic achievement. Above, Pam Stuber is given the WEBSTER'S THESAURUS by a representative of the Michiana College of Commerce.

Student scholars were honored on May 19. The recipient of the $2,000 Farmer's State Bank Scholarship was Tom Dykstra. Tom also won the Evans Foundation Scholarship and the Bausch Lomb Science Award.

Purdue certificates of recognition were given to Maria Wegh and Kelly Rybicki. Ball State music awards went to Gretchen Balogh, Adam Jensen and Mark Woodcox.

Karen Donathen won a $400-a-year scholarship to Ozark Bible College. The Robert Long Memorial Scholarship went to Todd Creed, and the Roy Hattery Memorial Scholarship went to Rhonda Rutzen.

State scholarships went to Jeff Clark, Tom Dykstra, Dan Feitz, Adam Jensen, Teresa Miller, Kelly Rybicki, Shelly Schafer, Karl Urban and Maria Wegh.

Brenda Zeiger was named "Most Valuable Staffer" for the LANCER-SHIELD NEWSPAPER.

LV stage becomes South Pacific isle

The Music and Drama Departments combined again to present Rogers and Hammerstein's Pulitzer Prize winning show "South Pacific" on April 9-11. This world-famous musical takes place on an island in the South Pacific during the Second World War. There is a Navy base on the island, and the relationships between the Seebies, the nurses, and the natives make the show funny and delightful. The romance that the island produces affects many people who fate has brought together on the island. As love grows, so does the show.

Mount St. Helens, May 18, 1980

1980-81: A year to remember

1980-81 was a year to remember. Ronald Reagan, a new president; hostages finally released; Mt. St. Helen erupts; John Lennon killed.

Ronald Reagan won the presidential election in November, 1980 over Jimmy Carter by a landslide, and on January 20 he was sworn in. At that time the hostages of Iran were being released. The hostages were there for almost a year and three months.

Mt. St. Helens erupted three times this year. Every time it erupted it sent volcanic ash as far as Wyoming, California and Montana.

A tragedy this year was when legendary Beatle John Lennon was gunned down outside of his apartment building.

The T.V. world witnessed the show "Dallas" that has made Larry Hagman, or more famously known as J.R., a famous swindler.

One of the most successful movies was "10"; the star Bo Derek in braids showed the world the meaning of "10".

In the sportsworld, Jim Plunkett went from Rookie of the Year to third-string quarterback of the year, to Super Bowl M.V.P. as the Oakland Raiders beat the highly touted Philadelphia Eagles. In baseball, the Phillies beat the Kansas City Royals.

PROM '81

The 1980-81 prom was held on May 2, from 9:00 to 1:00 a.m. at the lower level of the Century Center. The junior class put on the prom, and the sponsors were Mr. James Richards and Mr. Harry Marnocha.

The theme song was "The First Time" by Styx, and the theme colors were midnight blue and silver.

(right) The king, queen, prince and princess were chosen by ballot as the couples entered the Great Hall of the Century Center. They were announced at 11 p.m. The chosen royalty were, from left, king Greg Feitz, queen Pam Stuber, princess Lana Kendall, prince Steve Shamo. (bottom) Looking down upon the Great Hall, the prom begins to get underway.

Graduation was held on Sunday, May 24 at 2 p.m. The class song was "Dream A Dream" and the class colors were the pastels. The flower was a rose and the motto: "Let us become more than we are, All that we long to be, And everything we are capable of being."

As we walk the halls of LV for the last time, we carry many memories of the years spent here. Remember all the pep rallies and those calm fall evenings when rolls upon rolls of toilet paper went into the air, arching high above the tree tops? Remember also the numerous parties and get-togethers after the ball games?

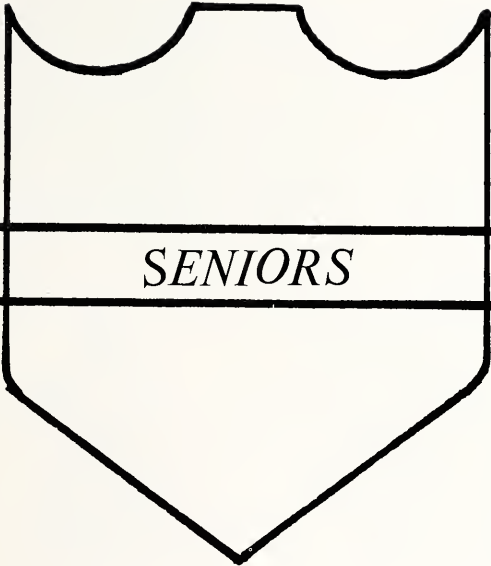

We, the class of 1981, will leave LaVie with a resume filled with many "firsts". We hold the record for winning the "spirit stick" the most times, always defeating our opponents by a wide margin. We started the card craze that keeps several tables busy at lunch. We procrastinated for all six years at LV, starting as seventh graders, afraid to ask someone older where an elusive classroom was. This fear led to numerous tardies for many of us. Our well-developed procrastination reached its high point in our junior year, when term paper deadline neared. To many seniors it was a surprise that we were ready for graduation by May 24. Besides procrastination, talking was one of our more refined activities (as many teachers will heartily agree).

We hope our class has left something of value behind. Whether it be our athletic, musical, or scholastic achievements, or the benefit of our friendship, we hope that future graduating classes will remember that their senior year is a time to enjoy.

As our senior year comes to a close, we look back with mixed feelings. There is a sadness for the friends and good times we will leave behind, but a sense of anticipation for all the years that lie before us.

The Senior Class of 1981.

As May draws near and the smell of spring is in the air, there is a certain disease that stalks the halls of LaVile; yet, it only seems to affect the seniors. This sickness, senioritis, is as deadly as it is contagious. Seniors who become infected have no hope of cure until graduation. The symptoms of senioritis are compulsive talking, continual reference to the 'under'-classmen, knowledge of the exact number of days until school is out, inability to study, lack of interest in anything that has nothing to do with seniors, and a definite regression to a pre-adolescence stage. But seniors should not worry too much; it's a sickness to enjoy!!

Leslie Fisher

Roy Hattery would have been a senior this year, but he died during the summer of 1980, nine days after the motorcycle he was driving collided with an automobile. The survivors of his family are his mother and an older sister, Halana, who graduated from LaVille in 1979. The Roy Hattery Memorial Fund has been established at the school. A deserving senior who plans to attend a technical trade school will receive $200.

AFTERGLOW

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve
to dry before the sun,
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

Cards, cards, and more cards!
Everywhere you look—at restaurants, parties, during rehearsals, and in the lunch room—you can see the seniors playing cards.

This tradition of playing cards, especially at lunch, started in the fall of 1979 when a group of people in the class of '81 played a game of 'spades' to relieve the boredom.

Since then, the habit of playing cards at lunch has infiltrated into all the classes at LaVille. So when you walk through the lunch room, you are greeted by the sounds of "the joy of victory and the agony of defeat" at many different card games. The class of '81 started out

Let me live my life from year to year,
With forward face and unreluctant soul.
Not hurrying to nor turning from the goal;
Not mourning for the things that disappear
In the dim past, nor holding back in fear
From what the future veils; but with a whole
And happy heart, that pays its toll
To youth and age, and travels on with cheer.

MUSIC

Band takes third place at Tournament of Bands

The 1980 Lancer Marching Band stepped off for their 16th season with enthusiasm. They had practice throughout the summer, then continued with 7 a.m. practices during school. Those practices saw many sleepy band members snap to attention at the trill of a whistle. These early morning rehearsals produced satisfying results as the band captured third place at the Indiana Tournament of Bands in Chesterton, In. and a second at district NISBOVA competition in Buffton, In.

The flag and rifle corps took great strides towards perfection as they received first place at Chesterton, competing against two-time state champion Chesterton and state powerhouse, Fort Wayne Northrup.

When basketball season arrived, the corps divided into two groups. They alternated between home games, performing for pre-game and halftime. "Veracruz" was a popular number for the corps as well as the pep band.

The Madrigal Singers performed their fourth annual Madrigal Dinner on two nights this year, Dec. 2 & 3, at the Plymouth Holiday Inn. They also added two new dances to their previous Pillow Dance (below left). The Boar's head (below right) was seen again at the dinner in tradition of the menu of the Elizabethan period.

All-Star band highlights the year

This year's junior high bands prepared for next year by once again marching with the high school band this fall. They gained valuable experience in performing pinwheels, right and left flanks and many other marching maneuvers.

Many members also participated in the Jr. High All-Star band which was held at Washington High School in South Bend on May 7. They were selected for their playing ability and instrumental needs.

As the 1980-81 music season came to a close there were mixed feelings. From the seniors there was happiness that they had made it. But there were many cherished memories. For some their music career had started eight short years ago in fifth grade band, learning how to play their instruments. They will have memories of the long, hard hours spent practicing the marching band shows and the parades and contests travelled to throughout the years. For the choir seniors, the memories of choir tours and madrigal practices shall serve as reminders of their time in LV's fine arts department. For the upcoming junior high students, many hours of practice await, but the memories and rewards will be well worth it.

LaVille .500 season highlighted by win over previously undefeated Jimtown

The LaVille Lancer football team finished the season with a 5-5 record. The highlight of the Lancer's season was the homecoming game when the Lancers beat the undefeated Jimtown Jimmies.

LaVille placed nine of its members on the Northern State Conference team. The Lancers also had the co-valuable-player of the conference, which was Dan Feitz.

The boys picked on the offensive NSC team were Brad Shultz, Rick George and Dan Feitz. Defensively the five picked were Gary Bragg, Dan Feitz, Tom Dykstra and Mike Bettcher. Tom broke the interception record at LaVille with ten interceptions.

Teams improve, plan for future

The 1980-81 cross country and girls' volleyball seasons both ended with improved seasons, and they also are losing very few seniors. Coach Joe Krom said he is looking forward to a successful season next year for the runners.

Starting only one returning letterman, the seven-man inexperienced runners came through to produce a "successful" season. The season ended with a 5-11 record. The runners placed third in the NSC meet and fifth in the county. Brian Allen was the most valuable runner.

The 1980-81 girls volleyball season ended with the varsity team notching a 4-8 record overall and a 2-4 conference record. The B-team record was 4-8, also. The key players for the varsity were Sandy Lippert, Lori Calmus and Lana Kendall. The B-team leaders were Delores Munoz and Tracy Singleton.

Matmen take N.S.C., win Invitational

The LaVille varsity wrestling team dominated the mats this season, finishing with a 12 and 1 record. They won two championships, including the Northern State Conference win at New Prairie High School. The conference tourney was won by only half a point with LaVille having four champions and four runners up.

LaVille also won a tournament at Northwood High School with three champions and four second-place finishers.

Many see wrestling as a non-aggressive sport, but it is not at all like that. Continued on next page.

Injuries occur often, and LaVille had three major injuries, including John Momm's badly sprained ankle, Dan Feitz's dislocated elbow and Tim Dosmann's torn knee ligaments. Feitz and Dosmann were unable to compete in sectional action, spoiling their tournament goals.

Although LaVille had no Semi-State qualifiers, four team members made it as far as the semi-finals for regionals. Lancers finishing in third were Jeff Holdeman, Gary Combs, and John Momm, Phil Stein finished fourth.

The junior high wrestlers, coached by Walt Pickerell and Tom Conrad, placed third in a tournament held at LaVille. The junior high wrestlers include, by weight classes: 80 lbs, LV tourney champ Brian Kabay; 85 lbs, Joe Reed; 105 lbs, Rodney Bettcher; 110 lbs, Kelly Plummer; 115 lbs, Bob Bean; 120 lbs, LV tourney champ Heath Wright; 125 lbs, Stevc Davis; 125 lbs, Kenny Reiter; 135 lbs, LV tourney champ Jay Weiler; 145 lbs, LV tourney champ Wade Kertai; 165 lbs, Steve Smous; and at heavyweight is Brent Amor.

Eighth grade prepares for high school

Graduation...it may mean going off to college or the start of a full-time job. Which-ever it is for you, the time has come to give serious thought to handling your own finances.

The State Exchange Bank and Farmers State Bank invite you to take the first step by opening a free checking account in your own name. If you don't already have a savings account, we suggest you consider starting one of these as well. And if a car is in your immediate future, one of our officers will be happy to explain the details of financing one.

Make talking to us the first step in planning your financial future. Come in today.

Students select favorites

In a poll taken of 100 LaVille High School students, the Blazon received some very interesting results. According to the poll, the most popular music group is heavy-rocking AC/DC, who hit the charts this year with songs like "Shook Me All Night Long" and "Dirty Deeds".

McDonalds, home of the golden arches, was the favorite restaurant among the students (even though the Big Mac has 480 calories).

M*A*S*H*, starring hilarious Alan Alda and company, was the most watched television show.

The pop-rock sound of U-93 FM, and the personalities of Mark (In the dark) Rallings and Maureen McFadden, features "30 Seconds to Fame" and has "Got LaVille Now".

Levi Strauss and company was voted as the most popular name "behind" LaVille students.

Mrs. Irwin leaves LV

Mrs. Eloise Irwin retired this year at the same school that she started in 30 years ago, LaPaz Elementary. She has taught for 35 years, but she ended her career as co-principal of the elementary school.

She laughed when she reported that her husband claims that she hasn't done much because she's at the same school.

She left her duties at LaVille as math teacher and Title I coordinator after Christmas vacation. She started working at LaPaz on Jan. 8.

"Teaching has been a very rewarding job," she summarized. "I am pleased to know that some of my students are very successful people."

What more can I say staff? I think you realize just how much you and your help meant and will always mean to me.

Special thanks go to the seniors, Todd and Beth; you accepted me as your editor even though I was younger than you. You came through so many times when I needed you.

To Mr. Mann, thanks. You've taught me a lot not only in yearbook, as well in just living. Remember the first time we tried to sell an ad to the funeral home? Well, I expect the same good times next year!

Thanks to last, but not least, the people who buy the Blazon every year and support us. It means a lot.

Thanks
